

Who can contribute?

Endowments might seem to be the playground of the fabulously wealthy, and that could not be further from the truth. In fact, most charities, universities and other institutions operate endowments to help stabilize future revenue. And while larger donations are always welcome, every Scouter and parent in the Council can help build our endowment fund with more modest contributions. Our endowment was built up over time by gifts of all sizes from generations of Scouts, parents, and friends who feel a deep commitment to Scouting. Unlike other gifts, giving to the endowment is not just supporting the special tradition of Scouting today, but continuing one's participation in it beyond one's lifetime.
